

Dedicates Poem To Dwight L. Moody In Brooklyn Church

Under the auspices of the Brooklyn church and Mission Federation a commemorative service was held of the life and work of Dwight L. Moody in the Tompkins Avenue Congregational church last Sunday afternoon. The address was delivered by Dr. Robert E. Speer, secretary of the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions and a trustee of the Northfield Schools and a personal friend of the great evangelist. A great throng was present and special music was rendered by a large choir and quartette. Several clergymen and prominent laymen participated in the service. The pastor of the church, Rev. Alfred Grant Walton, D. D., presented an original poem from his pen on the memory of Mr. Moody which we publish in its entirety:

DWIGHT LYMAN MOODY
1837 - 1899

This is a hurried, thoughtless world,
With little heed for by-gone days,
And yet, great Moody, not too rushed
To call thy name and sound thy praise.

Thy heart was honest as the sun,
Thy conscience pure and clean and bright,
Nor creed nor race could shackle thee,
Religion's true cosmopolite.

When thou didst lift thy pleading voice,
To woo the erring, save the lost,
A power descended from above,
Like fiery tongues at Pentecost.

The sinful wept to hear thee limn
Thy Saviour's crimson sacrifice,
Reached out to touch his seamless robe,
And caught a glimpse of Paradise.

Thou livest still, and where thy clay,
Now rests beneath fair Northfield's sod,
A brooding spirit hovers near,
Eternal as the love of God.

—Alfred Grant Walton

Bridge To Be Built On The Birnam Road

An advertisement has been made for bids for the construction of the new bridge on Birnam road, near the Sheldon place which will take the place of the old bridge which dropped at the time of the flood a year ago. Bids will be opened at the State department of public works on May 11 and it is expected that a contract will be let immediately and construction authorized for this summer.

Dance Recital

The pupils of the Kathleen Bagley School of Dancing will present their annual dance recital on Friday evening, May 14 at the town hall. Pupils of Northfield who are taking part are: June Bolton, Virginia Bolton, Ruth Dawe, Barbara Addison, Mary and Frances Eddy, Jan French, Janet Kehl, Caroline Robert, and Doris Miller, Enid Miner, Ruth Norton, Kay Moody, David Quinn, Gloria Savchiff, Ruth Rikert, Winona Robbins, Fay Warnock, Katherine Payson, Laverne Langville, and Arline Finch. General dancing will follow the recital until 12 o'clock.

Prize Competition

Dr. Robert M. Russell of Larchmont, N. Y. has offered two prizes for the best essays written by members of the senior class of the Seminary on the subject of worship. The topic for this year is "What Worship Is." These essays are to be between 500 and 1000 words in length.

Harry L. Gingras and family are moving into the house on the Breinle estate on the Hinsdale road today.

Scenes such as this may be enjoyed by summer guests here

Dr. Lovell Speaks To Brotherhoods Of County Churches

The April meeting of the Franklin County Association of Church Brotherhoods and Men's clubs was held at the First Methodist church in Greenfield Tuesday evening following a dinner served at the church at six o'clock. Several members of the Brotherhood of the local Congregational church attended and report a most interesting session.

The guest speaker was the Rev. Dr. Moses R. Lovell, pastor of the Second Congregational church of Holyoke. Dr. Lovell is a widely known lecturer in western Massachusetts and his talks are always listened to with a great deal of interest. He is a member of the trustees of both the Hartford Theological Seminary and the Andover Newton Theological Seminary.

The Federation which includes the men of practically all the churches in the county was organized in 1923 and Roy Hatch of Mount Hermon was its president last year. Stuart Winch of Turners Falls is the present head of the Federation.

There were 165 members of the Brotherhood present of which eleven were from the Brotherhood of the Northfield Congregational church.

The Nutting Lecture

Many from Northfield will want to attend the lecture of Wallace Nutting on colonial interiors at Orange on Friday evening, May 7, in the auditorium of the high school for the benefit of the D.A.R. Historical Museum. This will be a real privilege to hear a well-known authority on a subject in which all are interested. The tickets are 40 cents and since they are limited reservations should be made at once of Mrs. Louis M. Potts, 179 Main street, Tel. 229-4. Mrs. Potts will make the deliveries.—adv.

Girl Scouts

Ellen Giebel, scribe of Troop 1 Girl Scouts writes of their meeting last Tuesday afternoon at Alexander hall. The members enjoyed several games and made plans for passing their first and second class tests. They adjourned with the good-night circle.

The "mechanical man" a display of the W. C. T. U. is now being shown in the vacant store window of the Proctor block.

Daylight saving time is now in effect since last Sunday and everyone is perfectly delighted with the longer day.

Mrs. Thurston Speaks Of Her Experience At Home Meeting

Next Wednesday afternoon, at three o'clock the women of the North Church will hold the annual meeting of the Afternoon Auxiliary of the Women's Missionary society, at the home of Mrs. Frank Montague. Beside the reports and the election of officers there are to be several features of especial interest.

There will be an exhibit of the scrap books made by members during the year, which depict the work of the American Board around the world—and also the handwork of the year will be displayed, before it is sent to the fields for which it has been made. The outstanding privilege however, will be the presence of Mrs. Lawrence Thurston, from Nanking, China.

Mrs. Thurston has served in many places of large responsibility, among these having found, with her husband the late Lawrence Thurston, the site for the locating of Yale—or Yale in China—and later founding Yenching, one of the seven interdenomination colleges for women in the Orient. As president of Yenching, in Nanking, Mrs. Thurston served for the years between 1915 and the great readjustments of 1927. With her sister, Miss Helen Calder, who is well known here for her years of service as secretary of the Women's Board and later of the American Board, Mrs. Thurston returned recently from China, and will bring us vivid pictures of that country which she knows so well.

The women of the auxiliary extend a cordial invitation to all women of the community to attend and hear Mrs. Thurston.

The Social Club

The Young People's Social club will meet next Monday evening at Alexander hall from 7:30 to 10 o'clock to spend a social evening. Mrs. Donald Williams will be the hostess and have charge of the festivities and Leon Dunnell will preside at the piano. This will be another opportunity for our younger people to spend a pleasant evening which is appreciated by them.

The County Association of University Women held a special meeting yesterday (Thursday) in the library of Deerfield Academy to meet Mrs. Harriet Houdlette of the national organization. Northfield members of the society attended.

Miss Rena J. Keay of Jamaica Plains, begins her work at the Northfield hotel as secretary to Manager Gordon Moody this week.

Congregationals Of County Association Meet At Colrain

There was a goodly attendance at the annual spring meeting of the Franklin County association of Congregational churches held at Colrain Wednesday with a number of representatives from the local church present. The program opened at ten o'clock in the morning, with a dinner at noon and an afternoon session. The theme of the gathering was "Rallying the church." The speakers were Dr. D. Brewer Eddy of New York City who spoke on "America's responsibility in the face of new world trends and present problems in the Orient. Dr. Warren F. Dennison of New York spoke on "Christian stewardship and the spiritualizing of church finance" and Clement F. Hahn of Worcester whose topic was "Organizing for church attendance."

In attendance from Northfield were: Rev. and Mrs. W. S. Carne, Rev. and Mrs. W. A. White, H. P. Waite, Mrs. Woodward, Mrs. E. M. Morgan, Mrs. L. H. Lazelle, Mrs. C. P. Buffum, Mrs. N. Fay Smith, Misses Maud and Amy Hamilton, Miss Lydia Speakman, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Moody, Mrs. Fred A. Holton, Mrs. Charles Hodgden, Mrs. Carl Mason and Miss Daisy Holton.

Local W. C. T. U. To Show Film

Movies—"The Beneficent Reprobate"—will be shown in the town hall, Friday evening, May 7, at 7:30 o'clock under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. This is an educational picture and there will be no admission fee but a silver collection will be taken to help in the expenses. High school students are furnishing the music and everyone is most cordially invited. This film is being shown at the Greenfield High School from the third to the seventh and we are fortunate in securing it at this time.

The Garden Club

The Northfield Garden club met with Mr. and Mrs. Martin Vorce last Monday night. Lantern slides on "Bermuda, the Beautiful," were shown with Mrs. Allen Wright reading the lecture, and Mr. George W. Carr at the lantern. This was the most beautiful of the illustrated lectures given by the club this season, and there were many delighted comments on it.

Mr. Merrifield reported that a young oak tree, had been planted near the Memorial stone, in front of the Warren Wright's by the committees of the Historical society and the Garden club. Miss Corser exhibited a vegetable crusher used to make the new vegetable cocktails. Mrs. Wright, coral and pictures, mementoes of her Bermuda trip, and Mrs. Bigelow passed around a mystery plant in full bloom, which to the chagrin of the gardeners, turned out to be the common cabbage.

The president announced that the executive committee had asked Miss Jean Giebel to serve as secretary protem, to succeed Mrs. Mayberry who resigned a short time ago. Miss Giebel will act as secretary until September when new officers will be chosen for the coming year.

Gave Fine Concert

Last Sunday evening in the Congregational church the choir gave a Sacred Concert consisting of several hymns in which the congregation participated, anthems, solos under the direction of Prof. I. J. Lawrence, the choir leader. There were twenty-two voices in the choir. An offering was made for the choir treasury. It was a fine concert and well rendered.

Rev. Harold B. Ingalls will be the Sage Chapel speaker at the services Sunday morning. At vespers the Seminary church will observe communion.

Win Honors Again In Bowling League Can't Keep 'em Down

The Northfield bowling team, consisting of Phillip Porter, Myron Dunnell, Harry Gingras, Clinton Ware, Charles Browning, James Dale and Edward Bolton, captured the championship in the county league with 85 games won and 35 lost. These teams in the league were Northfield, Weldon, Waysides, Wyatts, Bonds, and Huggs. Weldon won second place and Waysides third. The team won a prize of $30. All games were played on the Wilcox alleys at Greenfield.

The highest individual average with prize went to Ware of Northfield for second place. The highest three-strings went to Gingras with prize for third place. The record of the individual bowlers of the Northfield team are as follows:

Ware	Games	Pinfall	Pct
Gingras	89	8415	94.5
Dunnell	84	7890	93.9
Dale	87	8046	92.4
Porter	65	5957	91.9
Browning	87	8073	91.7
	87	7944	91.3

Edward Bolton was substitute player. The Press regrets not being able to publish a picture of this aggregation but thus far no photographer has been found willing to risk his camera on the job. However, we'll wager that Northfield ever produced, and further we'll wager they'll win the pennant again next year.

Unitarian Parish Has Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the Unitarian church and parish was held in the church parlor last Monday evening with a representative attendance. The various organizations of the church rendered their reports and the church officials gave an account of their stewardship. The minister, Rev. Mary Andrews Conner, made three suggestions which will be given consideration by the parish executive committee. Delegates chosen to attend the Boston meeting were the pastor, Mrs. O. D. Doolittle, and Mrs. C. H. Webster. Alternates named were Mrs. C. C. Stearns and Mrs. Joseph Field. Officers elected for the ensuing year were: Charles C. Stearns, clerk; Joseph Morgan, treasurer; and Mrs. Annie Irish, collector. The executive committee named consisted of F. A. Irish, Carol Miller, Victor Vaughan, Gertrude Morgan, Mary G. Parker, Helen McNeil, and Marion Webster Goodspeed. It was voted to grant the use of the grounds and old horse sheds for a "Recreational Center" of which George N. Kidder is president. The officers of the church and the executive committee will counsel together in the furtherance of the plan. The church has had a successful year.

Thirty Years Wed

A party of friends and neighbors called on Mr. and Mrs. Harry James at their home on Park street last Monday evening to give them a surprise visit on the occasion of the 30th anniversary of their wedding. The party of thirty folks received a cordial welcome and remained for the evening spent in a social manner with refreshments served. Gifts were presented of a card table, hassock, and a well-filled purse.

Unitarian Conference

Several members of the local Unitarian church will go to Springfield Sunday to attend the Connecticut Valley conference of Unitarians which will be held in the Unitary church with sessions at 3:30 to 9:30 o'clock. The speaker will be the Rev. Dr. Frederick Eliot who is a candidate for the presidency of the American Unitarian association to be selected at the Boston meeting in May.

The Sacred Concert To Be On Radio; Arrangements Made

The Sacred Concert to be given Sunday afternoon, May 16, by the students of Northfield Seminary and Mount Hermon school, will be broadcast over the NBC blue network (WJZ) from 3 to 3:30.

The last verse of "O God, Our Help in Ages Past," sung by the congregation and the student body will introduce the half-hour broadcast. Three numbers will be given by the A Capella choir during the broadcast. "O Jesu Sweet," harmonized by Bach, will be sung by the Seminary choir and "The Hallelujah Chorus" from "The Messiah" will be given by the combined choirs of both schools.

The program will conclude with The Northfield Benediction which has been sung by students of the schools for 52 years.

The Northfield Benediction was composed by Lucy Rider Meyer, a Bible teacher at the Seminary in 1885 and was first used at Grandma Moody's 80th birthday party in Marquand hall.

Retires In June; 36 Years In Service; Given A Reception

A surprise reception at the home of Miss Mira B. Wilson was given Mr. F. L. Duley on Wednesday evening, April 28, in recognition of his 36 years of service to the Northfield Schools. Mr. Duley retires in June. Many friends and faculty co-workers of Mr. Duley at both Mount Hermon and the Seminary were present. During the evening a ship's barometer was presented to him.

After graduating from Mount Hermon in 1893, Mr. Duley attended Williams College and received his B. A. degree from there in 1897. In 1915 he received his M. A. degree from the same college. From 1897 to 1899 Mr. Duley was a professor in Robert college, Constantinople, and for two years after that he was a member of the U. S. Consular service there. In 1901 Prof. Duley returned to Mount Hermon and taught there until 1912 when he began his work at Northfield Seminary. Mr. Duley has taught Bible, Greek and Latin, and for some years now has been the head of the Seminary History department. From 1925 to 1929 he was acting principal of Northfield seminary.

The Grange Service At The South Church

Next Sunday is Grange Sunday and at 10:45 a. m. members of the organization will attend a special service in the South church with the service conducted by Rev. Mary Andrews Conner. The speaker will be Charles M. Gardner, High Priest of Demeter of the National Grange and music will be rendered by the Blackmer quartette of Orange. Members of the Northfield Grange will act as hosts and welcome all Grangers from out of town lodges who are expected to attend. However, a cordial welcome is extended to all to be present at the service and it will be a public worship. At the close of the service the local Grange will open the Grange hall and provide refreshments to those bringing a box luncheon.

The grass and brush fire of the Montague plains last Monday burned over an area ten miles long and a mile wide and took the efforts of 1200 men to bring it to an end twelve hours after it started. The entire company of the Wendell CCC camp was called into service as well as the forest fire apparatus from Winchendon and the Turners Falls fire departments. There were no serious damages to property but several small homes were saved in the area. It was the worst fire of its kind in this vicinity and the smoke was seen from all the surrounding territory.

Baseball Bleachers Built For Grounds By Local Ball 'Fans'

The basement of the town hall has been a busy place for the past week when for five evenings, loyal and enthusiastic friends of the baseball season have given their services in constructing, finishing and painting, live sections of three-tier, portable bleachers each section 12 ft. long. These bleachers were constructed under the direction of Henry J. Johnson the secretary of the athletic association who marshaled the forces of the volunteers and produced something that will be appreciated by all "fans" who frequent the games. These bleachers will be placed in position on the diamond of the playgrounds back of the High School in time to be used for the first game of the season between the local high school and St. Michael's school team of Brattleboro today (Friday).

Of the illustrious group who served as builders of the bleachers Robert Johnson took the blue ribbon with five evenings. Byron Haley and Clarence Webber captured red ribbons with four evenings and Winthrop Jones, Bob Thompson, Charles Krause, and Eddie Luciew won white ribbons with three evenings. Dr. Wright contributed two evenings through Byron Haley. Others who served one evening were Fred Huber, Dean Williams, Dan Sutherland, R. E. Shearer, Robert Shearer, Calvin Field, Harland Atwood, Clayton Glazier, Lyle Amosden, Eddie Scoble, Chester Scoble, Fred Bolton, Bill Dalton, Jr. The latter all received a thank you and a handshake from Generalissimo Johnson. However, this group have turned out a good job and when the bleachers are placed a seat ought to be worth at least a dollar for the first "sit-down strike."

Halsey - Dexter

The wedding of Miss Helen Dexter and Robert C. Halsey, both of Maplewood, N. J., took place last Saturday in the Prospect Presbyterian church of that town with the Rev. Arthur Nelson Butz officiating. Announcement cards have been received by friends here.

Robert Halsey is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Halsey, who for many years were summer resident of East Northfield. They sold their home here to Rev. Robert A. Watson who with his family still continue to occupy. Robert's sister, Dorothy, married Nathan Stark, son of Prof. and Mrs. Stark of Mt. Hermon some years ago and his brother, Theodore, married Doris Cheney, a niece of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Walker.

McDonough - Callaghan

The wedding of Miss Ellen Ruth Callaghan of Boston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Callaghan of Main street, Northfield, and William Joseph McDonough, son of William R. McDonough of Rosindale was solemnized in St. Patrick's church, Northfield, on Saturday morning, April 24 at 8 o'clock, by the Rev. J. A. Weidlock of St. John's church, Millers Falls.

The bridesmaid was Miss Jane Callaghan a sister of the bride and the best man was Robert McDonough a brother of the groom. James Dale was usher. The bride wore an informal dress of blue silk and carried a bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaid wore a dress of thistle silk and carried a bouquet of sweet peas. The double ring service was used.

A wedding breakfast was served attended by relatives of both the bride and groom at the Northfield hotel. Immediately after the breakfast the young people left for an extended wedding trip through the south and upon their return will reside at Rosindale.

The Covered Wagon of Currency

AND THE AIR-LINER

The Forty-niners traveled by covered wagon and paid with gold dust. Modern America demands more speed: air-liners for travel, checks for currency.

In a few moments at your desk with your check book, you can pay a score of bills—locally or across the continent. And checks are far safer than cash. They offer no reward to thieves, and there's no arguing with a cancelled check as to a payment that's been made.

FORTNIGHTLY

The annual business meeting of the Fortnightly was held in Alexander hall last Friday afternoon, Mrs. A. H. Wright, president, presiding. The reports for the year showed the club to be in excellent condition financially and recorded a gain in membership. Many of the programs for the season have been of unusual interest. Mrs. Wright warmly thanked her fellow officers for their co-operation and all committees.

The annual pilgrimage was announced for Wednesday, May 19, in charge of Mrs. Clarence Steadler. The point of interest this year is the Saint Gaudens' Memorial at Cornish, N. H.

In preparation, Mrs. Gordon Moody gave a very interesting talk on the life of the sculptor, at the meeting Friday.

Saint Gaudens' father was a French shoemaker, his mother was a native of Ireland. His early years were spent in the employ of a Cameo cutter. When he was 19 he went to Paris to study at the Ecole des Beaux Arts, where he became influenced by the movement based on the Italian Renaissance, rather than on classic ideals. His first production was Hiawatha, executed at Rome. He became associated with Stanford White, architect, who, it will be remembered planned the gardens at the Schell Chateau.

One of Saint Gaudens' outstanding sculptures is the Henry Adams memorial at Washington, representing a seated figure partly veiled. This work surpasses in mystery and spiritual feeling. The standing statue of Lincoln in Chicago is one of his best, possessing dignity and pathos. A replica of this is in London facing Westminster Abbey. With Stanford White he did the statue of Diana which topped the old Madison Square Gardens in N. Y. Another outstanding piece of Saint Gaudens is the Robert Gould Shaw memorial in Boston.

The memorial to Saint Gaudens at Cornish was erected by his widow and his sons. It enshrines the atmosphere in which he lived and had his being; the pictures he loved, his books, and the fountain. His ashes are enshrined in a little temple near, built by his friends. Thousands visit this shrine year after year in memory of one of America's greatest sculptors.

Mrs. Moody illustrated her talk with pictures, and made the subject of her remarks a vivid personality.

Since the officers of the Fortnightly are chosen to serve two years, the only names voted on at this meeting were those of new members serving on the following committees: Program, Mrs. George F. Davis, Mrs. Fred Palfam, Mrs. Dana Leavis; music, Mrs. George Kidder and Mrs. Wilbur Deane. Directors, Mrs. Charles J. Johnson, Mrs. J. F. Kendrick, Mrs. Thomas H. Parker.

Plant Oak Tree

Last Friday afternoon a committee representing the Historical society met and planted an oak tree just south of the stone marking the first religious service in Northfield. The state had given permission for the planting since it was within the highway bounds.

School Gives Credit to Boys Designing Model Cars

STUDENTS in general shop classes at the Hutchins intermediate School in Detroit will receive curricular credit for designing and building miniature automobiles of the type being sought in the model car design competition recently announced by the Fisher Body Craftsmen's Guild. Ole V. Olsson, manual arts instructor at the junior high school, who is instituting the project in his classes, is shown discussing construction details with some of his pupils, all of whom are entering the competition in the hope of winning one of the $5,000 university scholarships or lesser awards posted by the educational foundation. The awards offered in this and the Napoleonic coach-building competition total $80,000.

Paul D. Moody Writes

In the Protestant Episcopal Chronicle for April is a splendid article by Paul D. Moody under the caption of "Unless I Believed." It is a most interesting article full of deep significance and ending up in the words that "life would not be worth living for if there was nothing worth dying for. Life would have no significance and could not have borne it if he had not believed." The magazine was kindly loaned us by Mr. H. W. Rankin for review.

The Morgan Memorial Rescues Rare Bellini

The Museum of Fine Arts in Boston has a rare painting of "A Doge" attributed by experts to Gentile Bellini (1429-1507) and its possession is revealed in a most interesting story in which the Morgan Memorial is concerned, for it was in one of their "Goodwill Bags" used by many friends in Northfield that the painting was found.

Last November a representative took the painting to the museum for examination as is usually done with all paintings received and after a most careful examination by competent experts it was pronounced a rare Bellini. Finding the donor was a real task but accomplished. The owner being a friend of the Morgan Memorial and of the Museum released all claims and the result was that the Memorial and Museum both profited. It was discovered that this painting with others had been purchased in Paris many years ago and was inherited by the owners who discarded it in the "goodwill bag" as of no value. The story in detail affords most interesting reading.

Two weeks ago the Northfield Press invited our citizens to request "goodwill bags" of the Morgan Memorial, not to discard valuable paintings but to fill up with anything for which they had no use.

Minister Assails Greed

A clergyman in Washington bears a familiar name to us in Northfield. He is the Rev. William R. Moody rector of St. Marks Episcopal church at Washington, D. C., and recently he declared in a sermon given much space in the press that "no community possessed by greed, can have efficient law enforcement, civic peace, justice nor safety in person and property."

Said the clergyman: "Greedy business men, greedy politicians, greedy labor leaders and greedy citizens will turn our Nation's life into a jungle, unless America's conscience can be touched and we, as a Nation, make a return to the moral teachings of Jesus Christ."

The annual meeting of the W. C. T. U. of the county will be held at North Leverett on Wednesday, May 19.

In writing from Southern Pines where he is enjoying his vacation, Lawrence H. Lazelle says the temperature is around 90 but that the nights are cool. He is feeling much better and quite rested.

Dr. and Mrs. John Southworth of Rutland, Vt., were dinner guests of Mrs. Gencie Bruce last Saturday. Mrs. Southworth remained for a few days while the doctor went on to Boston to attend a medical meeting.

E. W. Dunklee, R. E. Bruce, Mrs. Ralph Holton, Mrs. C. I. Holton and Mrs. A. H. Farnum attended the meeting of Pomona Grange at Newfane last Wednesday.

The South Vernon P. T. A. will hold a surprise social next Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. All are cordially invited.

The girls Lotus 4-H club met at the home of Miss Elva Martin-eau last Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Louise Southworth a returned missionary from Japan gave a most interesting talk of her experiences. The club presented a birthday cake to Miss Eleanor Bruce because of her birthday.

A card party was held at Pond schoolhouse last Friday evening with 12 tables. First prizes went to Mrs. Herbert Baker, Cecil Wilson, Peter Schib, Jr., won consolation prize. At the close of the meeting a surprise was tendered Miss Julia Cheney and she was given a birthday cake in honor of her anniversary. She also received a box of chocolates from the South school, as well as other gifts.

Miss Beatrice Lackey is now employed in the office of Dr. McSweeney at Brattleboro.

Finley Now Editor

Dr. John H. Finley, associate Editor of the New York Times, became editor last week and subscribers of that paper here read with much satisfaction of the announcement inasmuch as Dr. Finley is personally acquainted in Northfield.

Dr. Finley joined the Times staff as associate editor in 1921. Prior to that time he had achieved distinction as editor of Harper's Weekly, as an educator, historian and economist. He began his career in the print shop. He was born on a farm near Grand Ridge, Ill., in 1863. He was graduated from Knox college in 1887 and in the same year entered John Hopkins university.

In 1892 he was named head of Knox college, holding that position seven years. He then became editor of Harper's Weekly. He was the first incumbent of the chair of politics at Princeton, which he left to head the City College of New York. After seven years' service as Commissioner of Education for the state of New York, Dr. Finley resigned to join the Times staff.

"Personal Property" is being shown today and Saturday at the Auditorium in Brattleboro and is well worth seeing. Many folks from Northfield are seen each week enjoying the pictures at the Auditorium.

EDITORIAL

There may be those who still would fain to welcome to their ideals the purpose and hope of the Youth Hostel movement which has its national headquarters in Northfield. Perhaps its founders were too ambitious for them, perhaps the old adage "a prophet is not without honor save in his own country," may be a reason—but, be that as it may the American directors who are thus far responsible have before them a vision and to that ideal they have sacrificed themselves to its accomplishment.
 They believe in youth and its aspirations and now comes forth the American Youth League established in Chicago, destined to spread to all our cities and states and which states in its program that "youth must know the United States through travel."

What's more they are impressed with the hostel idea and are to make a serious study of it.
 Let's keep in step with the ambitions of youth—times change.

An announcement has been made this week that the first effort to highway beautification to be made by the state comes in the awarding of a contract to a Sunderland firm to plant trees and shrubs along Route 8 in Cheshire and Lanesboro. The trees will be largely rock maple and birch at intervals of sixty feet and on the slopes, laurel, ink berry, barberry, and flowering dogwood. Yew and juniper will also be used. This experiment will be watched with considerable interest and in itself is a most commendable ambition. If successful it should be repeated for its about time our streets and highways were made far more attractive than they appear at present. Some of our main traveled highways look more like dirty alleys. Every town should endeavor to make its thoroughfares not only clean and attractive but more scenic and beautiful to the travelers thereon.

Mothers' Day is Sunday, May 9th, the second Sunday in May.
 It was newspaper publicity and endeavor which established the universal observance of the day and brought about its proclamation by President Woodrow Wilson. Mother, that fairest and dear-est of all creatures, is worthy of our devotion and consideration.
 If she has passed on, may memory recall her virtues and ennobling character. If she lives, accord her that honor which she deserves and tell her how much she is loved and appreciated.
 Someone once said that "all I am I owe to my mother." It was well said.

Young People's Rally Thursday Evening At Local Church

Next Thursday evening there will be a young people's rally at the Congregational church at 7:30 o'clock to which the public are cordially invited. The speaker will be Rev. William Turkington of the Baptist Theological Seminary of Philadelphia. He was educated in Ireland and is of Irish birth. He entered evangelistic work upon his arrival in the United States, directing the music in evangelistic campaigns for his uncle, the Rev. Albert

REV. WILLIAM TURKINGTON

Turkington, with whom he traveled in the eastern and southern states.

While taking his theological work he did extensive singing in many churches throughout the state of Pennsylvania, and was later called upon by the program committee of the American Baptist Home Mission society to accompany "the Covered Wagon" following the trail of the pioneers of 100 years ago. This trip covered all the central states from Boston to Portland, Ore.
 Following this he was associate pastor of the Blochy Baptist church of Philadelphia, for four years, and then was called to become director of Young People's work in Tremont Temple, Boston, and conduct congregational singing.

Property Values Up Long Told Assessors

At a meeting last week of city and town assessors held in Worcester, State Tax Commissioner Long said that "property values are going up and that all valuations should be made on a fair and equitable basis."

He frankly stated that he believed there would be little change in the year's tax and assessment laws. He told the assessors that Massachusetts with well over a billion dollars of exempt property is losing taxes on valuations of eight mid-western states. Long said that assessors should be fair and impartial and that their lists should be completed at the earliest possible time.

SEMINARY ITEMS

This Saturday evening at 8:00 o'clock, Miss Helen Howe, monologist, will entertain the students of the Seminary in Silver-thorne hall. Miss Howe has been well-liked in the past by the Seminary audience.

The Tree Day pageant, "Cinderella," promises to be a delightful one. Rehearsals for the pageant to be given Saturday,
 May 15, are being held daily.
 May 15-16 will be Parents' weekend this year.

A Centenary Tea By Orange Women; Mrs. A. P. Fitt Guest

A large number of women from the churches of Orange attended the Moody centenary tea in the Central Congregational church of that town Tuesday afternoon, when Mrs. A. P. Fitt was the guest of honor. Accompanying
 Mrs. Fitt was her daughter, Mrs.
 E. M. Powell. In planning the observance, the sponsors had in mind that D. L. Moody belonged to all the people, not to any sect or group and so friends came from all churches to recall his life and work.

Mrs. Fitt spoke of her memories of her father, of his work and of his home life. Here was, indeed, a personal touch of the influence of the great evangelist.
 Mrs. Powell also spoke with well chosen words. A chorus of women's voices sang the best known hymns used by Mr. Moody.

In the serving of the tea a large centenary birthday cake was cut and distributed to the guests. One of the pourers was Mrs. Hattie Lyman Thayer, one of the first students to enter the seminary and Mrs. Harry C.
 Gates also a former student and admirer of D. L. Moody and his daughter, Mrs. Fitt. It was indeed a memorable observance.

Auto Inspections Will Be Started May 1

All arrangements are now completed by the State Registry for the examination of equipment of automobiles through the various official inspection stations. The law requires these drives twice a year. Under this inspection, the motorist has from May 1 to 31 to obtain a sticker signifying official inspection.
 This year's sticker is orange and carries the state seal, with a warning for safe driving on its back.

Registrar Frank A. Goodwin says pressure has been brought to bear to take away inspection from official stations and have it done by the state, but if it is done as well, or better, as last year, he will stick to the present system.

Fair Dates Announced

Members of the Massachusetts Agricultural Fair association held their annual spring meeting in Worcester last week Thursday and named Fred B. Dole of the Franklin County association as a member of its legislative committee. Decisions regarding the various fairs held in the state were made and the dates for this summer announced as follows:
 Marshfield, Aug. 23-28; Nantucket, Aug. 25-28; Middlefield, Sept. 3-6; Bridgewater, Sept. 4-6;
 Blandford, Sept. 6-7; Brockton,
 Sept. 12-18; Franklin county,
 Sept. 13-15; Martha's Vineyard,
 Sept. 14-16; Topsfield, Sept. 15-
 18; Huntington, Sept. 17-18;
 Eastern States, Sept. 19-25; Great Barrington, Sept. 28-Oct. 2; Cum-mington, Sept. 28-29; Northampton, Sept. 30-Oct. 2; Acton, Oct. 1.

Soph (earnestly): Now, honestly, what would you do if you were in my shoes?
 Senior (disdainfully): Get a shine!

All open air fire permits are suspended for some time in a notice from the state received by all fire chiefs and wardens. The extreme dryness in the woods and the lack of green foliage makes the fire hazard extremely dangerous.

The visitor called at the village library. "May I have the 'Letters of Charles Lamb'?" he inquired.
 "You're in the wrong building,
 Mr. Lamb," said the new clerk pleasantly. "The post office is just across the street."
